

I realized, after having attended church regularly most of my life, that I was missing something in my faith walk. I was with a friend in the car and we were talking about church and faith. I told her I felt there was much more to being a Christian than what I was experiencing and I needed to grow in my beliefs and connection to God. That opened the door for her to tell me about Tres Dias and that she felt I would get a lot out of it. It sounded like what I needed and wanted to do so she got me signed up and I attended the women's weekend in October 2000. I left the weekend feeling on a huge spiritual high and wanted others to have the experience I had. I continue to have a closer walk with Jesus and it's amazing how I understand more scripture as time goes on. Everytime I'm with my Christian brothers and sisters of Tres Dias I am lifted and re-energized to work for God in my everyday life. I hope many others will join the Maine Tres Dias community of faith.
